

Degree in Finance and Accounting

First Year

First Semester

- Introduction to Accounting
- Commercial Law
- Statistics I
- Mathematics I
- Introduction to Microeconomics

Second Semester

- Financial Accounting
- Mathematics II
- Introduction to Macroeconomics
- Principles of Applied Economics
- Business Organization

Second Year

First Semester

- Marketing
- Microeconomics
- Mathematics of Financial Operations
- Financial Accounting
- Business Administration

Second Semester

- Financial Management: Investment
- Financial Statement Analysis
- Fundamentals of the Financial Markets
- Statistics II
- Monetary Macroeconomics

Third Year

First Semester

- Financial Management: Finance
- World Economics
- Management Accounting
- Financing
- Markets and Financial Assets I

Second Semester

- International Finance
- International Marketing
- International Economics
- International Economic Relations
- International Business Law
- Consolidation of Financial Statements
- Control of Management and Information Systems
- Strategic Management
- Managing Risk in Financial Operations
- Financial Management: Corporate Risk Management
- Financial Services Marketing
- Financial Market Law
- History of Economics

Fourth Year

First Semester

- Taxation
- Auditing
- Economic and Financial Planning
- Markets and Financial Assets II

* Those courses marked in blue are also offered in English